

Letter of Commitment

Dear President of Kobe University,

I am writing this letter of commitment regarding my research activities at Kobe University.

1. I will abide by the guidelines of Kobe University's code of conduct for academic research as well as the guidelines for the proper use of Kobe University's research funds.
2. In terms of conducting research activities and assisting in the execution of research funds, I agree and abide by the related rules and regulations set by Kobe University, as well as, including but not limited to, grant conditions and terms of use for the relevant research funds. I will execute fund-based jobs or assignments which are assigned to me with sincerity. I will neither give tacit approval of misapplication of kickbacks, including but not limited to, salary, remuneration and/or travel expenses, nor research misconduct, nor participate in research misconduct.
3. In case of participating in wrongdoing, or any damages caused to the university due to my misconduct, I will be subject to penalty from Kobe University and funding institution(s), and I will be held responsible for legal obligations.

Sincerely,
